Football Season Opens Friday

Bay High Gridders In Debut

The roar of cheering sections and the sound of marching bands, drums and brass instruments will emanate from St. Stanislaus Stadium tomorrow night as the Bay High Gridders take the field in their debut game against the Pass Christian Pirates. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

St. Stanislaus and North Central open their schedules with out-of-town games Friday night, the Rock-A-Chows taking on the tough Gulfport Commodores in Milner Stadium while the Hawks invade Ocean Springs. Bay High is favored to take its opener while St. Stanislaus and North Central are underdogs. This is the second year of competition for North Central and observers are looking for a big improvement in Coach Truman Schultz's Hawks.

Coach Reuben Ruiz has been working his Rocks primarily on pass defense and has moved Woodie Wilson, 190-pound end, to fullback.

THIS YEAR'S TIGERS - Kickoff time is 8 p.m. tomorrow night in St. Stanislaus Stadium when this sturdy pack of Bay High Bengals meet a heavier Pass Christian Pirate squad in their attempt to win the conference title two years in a row.

Lettermen returning and some seasoned men in reserve. The Tigers are definitely considered a threat in the conference. Lumpkin said, however, that his team will be outweighed by the Pirates.

Waveland To Form CD Group

A civil defense council with Mayor Bourgeois as director was established Wednesday night by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of Waveland. Other members are the mayor, aldermen, fire chief and town marshal.

A major reason for the establishment of the new body was the purchase of many items, including surplus, from the federal government at a large saving to the community.

On Tuesday council voted unanimously to execute an agreement with the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi, thereby bringing Waveland into the state's supplemental retirement system. Thomas H. Collier, supervisor of social security and retirement for the state, earlier explained the advantages, costs to town and employees and other details of the state's annuity program with emphasis on changes made by Senate Bill 102, Miss. Laws of 1960.

All current employees desiring to join and all future employees will pay to the system four percent of that part of their pay which exceeds $100 a month. Waveland will contribute the same until sums for prior years of service have been paid for and then will contribute 2 1/2 percent of the employees' pay over $100.

The question of a qualified engineer to check certain streets of Waveland, paved in 1958 by Gulf Paving Co., to ascertain if specifications were met again was raised when Mr. A. O'Conor of the construction firm and J. Nelson Hays Jr., local engineer, appeared before the council. At a later meeting with Hays and O'Conor had objected to the estimate of his fee for the town was excessive, and the construction firm had volunteered to pay if necessary.

A technical discussion of the matter was required for an accurate estimate of the fee. Hays and O'Conor agreed to O'Conor's estimate for a firm bid instead of an estimate.

Vote Nov. 8 on Ruhr's Successor

Election of a successor to Alderman William A. Ruhr, who died Aug. 26, was set for Nov. 8 by Waveland's Mayor and Board of Aldermen last night. At the meeting they unanimously ordered the town's election commissioners, Charlesston Ladner, Alvin Ladner and Paul Henley, to set and advertise that date for the election. The date corresponds

Express Firm Expansion Set

Gulf Coast Express, Inc., which has its headquarters on Ballentine Street, is embarking on an expansion program which calls for construction of new warehouse facilities in New Orleans and the addition of three or four new pieces of equipment, Vincent Morreale, operator, announced today.

Morreale has purchased a 108 by 625 foot tract on Chief Menteur Hwy. in New Orleans as the site for a new warehouse there along with office space. He said he hopes the eight-door plant will be ready for operation in about two months and is currently working with architects on the design. Sale price was $70,000.

He contemplates addition of about three more office employees at the New Orleans end but will retain the headquarters in Bay St. Louis. The growth also calls for more equipment to handle the expanding business.

Gulf Coast Express was organized here in 1929 covering the area from New Orleans to Mobile with stops at intermediate points. In addition to offices at both terminals and the headquarters it has facilities in Gulfport.

with the time for the general election of U. S. officials.

Under the town charter 30 days notice to the public is required before an election; under a general section of the Miss. code 10 days notice is necessary; but to get a name on the ballot requires the candidate to file with the election commission 40 days before the election. For this reason the council allowed the additional time, which had been recommended by Town Attorney Dan M. Russell Jr.

Earlier in the day Russell said he had contacted Atty. Gen. Joe T. Patterson and that Patterson ruled the 1950 U. S. census was still official for the state so in order to get his name on the ballot a candidate for the aldermanic job is required to obtain signatures to his petition from only 15 eligible voters. In municipal corporations with a population of over 1,000 the petition must be signed by 50 electors.

Youth Rams Car Into Seawall

A New Orleans teenager escaped injury although his father's stationwagon was nearly demolished when he rammed the seawall at Nicholson Ave. and Beach Blvd. in Waveland Saturday.

Russell Smith, 16, said he was driving alone south in Nicholson Avenue about 11:15 p.m. and didn't know he was approaching the end of the street.

He said by the time he saw the seawall in front of him it was too late to turn. Deputy Sheriff Robert Coleman estimated damage to the car at $900 and damage to the seawall and pier at between $100 and $150.

Ross Puts Weston on Vote Body

J. Roland Weston, surveyor and colonel on Gov. Ross Barnett's staff, this week was appointed by the governor as one of Hancock County's election commissioners for a four-year term effective Sept. 1.

Former Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner Jr. was reappointed by Atty. Gen. J. T. Patterson and Robert Genin was named to another term by Secretary of State Heber Ladner. Sylvan Ladner was named last year to fill out the unexpired term of Dan M. Russell Jr., who resigned when he was named to the state oil and gas board.

Weston takes over the seat previously occupied by Lucien M. Gex, local attorney.

2 Woods Face Sentencing in Sale of Drugs

After pleading guilty in Federal court in New Orleans Aug. 31 on charges of selling sleep preventing drugs, Ben T. Wood and Howard Wood of Clermont Harbor and New Orleans, operators of Trucktown on U. S. 90 near Bay St. Louis and former operators of the United Truck Stop at Slidell, were remanded to the custody of the U. S. marshal to await sentence after Judge Herbert W. Christenberry received a pre-sentence report from the probation office. They were released on $500 bond each.

The defendants were charged with making six sales of amphetamine tablets to undercover agents of the food and drug administration. William Hayes, (Cont. on Page 4.)

Depletion Threatens County General Fund

Only about $4,000 remains in the county general fund which is believed not enough to pay bills through the current fiscal year. Clerk Claiborne Ladner told the board of supervisors at its regular meeting Tuesday.

A transfer of $20,000 from the general fund to the road and bridge bond fund was made to repay a previous loan which had to be done before the end of the fiscal year in October. It was brought out this would not leave

Mayor Issues Warning About Donna's Threat

All necessary precautions should be taken if tropical hurricane Donna approaches the area, Mayor John A. Scaffide warned today.

Advisories at press time indicated the hurricane may move into the Gulf and could hit the Mississippi Coastal area during the weekend although an accurate prediction cannot be made at this time, he said. However, he warns residents to listen to the advisories, especially those in areas that have been inundated before, and evacuate immediately should they indicate the Coast will be affected and not wait until the storm approaches as in the past. He pointed out that a number of lives were lost during the 1947 hurricane and that about 25 years ago more than 400 people were killed in Florida. "This is a severe and dangerous hurricane," he said, "and we may be exposed to serious danger."

enough money in the fund to take care of the September term of Circuit Court and it was agreed that the costs would be paid in October after money was received from tax sales and other sources.

On motion of T. M. Frierson seconded by Charles Russ it was voted to pay all bills from the general county fund until it was exhausted. Ladner called the state attorney general who said court expenses must be paid whether or not the fund exceeded the budget.

Approval of another inter-fund transfer of money was made after Beat 4 Supervisor James Necaise showed the board bills that had been paid on construction of the Kiln-Picayune Road. It was unanimously voted to transfer $2,000.62 from Beat 4 special fund to the road and bridge maintenance fund. Last week the Hancock Bank had notified Ladner that the Beat 4 maintenance fund was overdrawn by approximately $400 apparently because of an error when Bonds 3 and 4 in the amount of $2,000 were paid out of the road and bridge special project fund causing money to be used from the maintenance fund to complete the road.

Low bid of $17,738 by Allied Equipment Co. to furnish a motor grader for use on the seawall was accepted after members voted unanimously to go into executive session so that representatives of the four bidders could be heard individually. Motion for the executive session was by Necaise seconded by Frierson. Doors were closed to the public at 10:15 a.m. and opened at 11:40 a.m. Beat President R. G. Hubbard Jr. said prior to the vote he was not in favor of the session.

At another point in the day-long meeting members engaged in a close-grouped discussion speaking in inaudible tones for about five minutes.

Others bidding on the grader were Stribling Brothers, $20,469, Mississippi Road Supply Co. $19,244, and Southern Equipment Sales $20,104.

Bidders on removing of piling and logs lying in the lake from Bayou Caddy to Jordan River were Earl Garcia and Sons $4 (Cont. on Page 5.)

City Millage Hike Slated For Schools

Mayor John Scaffide said today Bay St. Louis' millage will have to be increased again this year for the 1960-61 fiscal year but hesitated to estimate how much.

He said the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School Board has presented its budget for the next fiscal year and that because of the opening of North Bay Elementary School and the hiring of the teachers and other expenses accompanying the opening of a new school, more money will be needed.

Work on the city budget is being held up pending the completion of the assessed valuation survey in Waveland and outlying areas. He said that the survey for Bay St. Louis proper is completed and that the remaining surveying should be finished by mid September.

Bay St. Louis received its first millage hike for ten years last year for the current fiscal year to help finance three municipal school construction projects.

City Commission Council fixed the rate at 36 1/4 mills for the current year, an increase of 1 1/4 mills from the previous year. The increase went toward amortization of the $285,000 school bond issue approved by the voters in December, 1958. The bond issue was for North Bay, an addition to Valena C. Jones School and lunchroom at Waveland School.

When the present administration took over City Hall 11 years ago, the millage rate was 45 mills. It has been decreased since that time with the assessment base raised to provide a more sound financial structure, particularly where borrowing is involved. Bonded debt limit is fixed in relation to the total assessment.

Push New Expansion Plan for Gulfview

The county board of education at a brief meeting Tuesday afternoon signed the proposed 1960-61 budget calling for an outlay of some $10,000 more than the current year in state minimum program and district funds and directed Architect Fred Wagner to prepare sketches of a modest expansion plan to relieve overcrowding at Gulfview School.

The proposal to offer to the State Education Finance Commission a less expensive means of coping with Gulfview's troubles was advanced by Beat 5 member Mrs. C. C. McDonald. Following up Principal Paul Lamphere's suggestion to convert the lunchroom into classrooms, she conferred with Wagner who concurred that was not practical but proposed that the gymnasium stage be taken down and classrooms added there. He assured her the cost would not exceed $18,000 compared with the $24,000 or more estimated in an earlier plan.

The trustee reported Wagner had offered to make a sketch of the proposal for her to submit to the state with no cost if it is disapproved. Mrs. McDonald noted that use of the gym for a teaching area now will be costly with heating the huge building in the winter, as well as cause confusion to physical education classes.

Lamphere also asked that the board of supervisors be requested to put in culverts opposite the school to provide a suitable (Cont. on Page 5.)

At Safety Meet with State Engineer

Pledge Relief at Dunbar, 90

A State traffic engineer admitted this morning that the state "goofed" in failing to provide protection for pupils crossing U. S. 90 to North Bay School and vowed to make immediate amends.

A. M. White, traffic control and safety engineer in the State Highway Department, so spoke when he appeared at a joint meeting of the Bay St. Louis safety council and the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce safety committee in the mayor's office. His admission came after the Rev. Charles Johnson, rector of Christ Episcopal Church and chairman of the Chamber safety committee, "observed the state was alerted months ago that the school was being opened this fall and that children would be crossing the already dangerous highway at Dunbar Avenue.

Mr. Johnson said: "You folks up there are not nearly as concerned as we are. We knew it was going to be a problem and it is a problem."

The rector charged the state has been lax in making any repairs on U. S. 90 between Bay St. Louis and New Orleans for the past 20 years, saying "We've got a problem here and we've had a awful lot of deaths on highway 90. We're very much concerned about it and we have to get the state officials as concerned as we are. What needs to be done is not being done. The blood has been on our hands but now we're beginning to think it belongs on someone else's hands."

White said he wants to do all in his power and within the state budget to help. He said he will order new traffic signals for the intersection. This will provide a button on the light posts for pedestrians to push that will give Dunbar 30 seconds of green. He said a policeman can be stationed at the intersection during school crossing hours to operate the system for the youngsters. The policeman can also press the button to give small children and others more time to cross when necessary.

About 30 days delivery is expected with another three to four days for installation, White said. As a temporary measure he said that this morning he readjusted the present traffic signals at the intersection to give cars and pedestrians 25 to 30 seconds to cross instead of the previous 12 seconds.

At the suggestion of Commissioner J. Cyril Glover the engineer agreed to have school crossing signs erected in U. S. 90 from both approaches to the intersection. He said a sign truck is now in the area and will erect temporary "School" signs until "School Crossing" signs can be secured and erected.

Mr. Johnson and Mayor John Scaffide expressed concern over the 50 mile speed limit and asked to have it reduced to at least 40 miles an hour through Bay St. Louis.

The rector said 50 miles an hour is a "ridiculous" speed and cited other cities in which highway speed is reduced through the city. Mayor Scaffide said the city passed an ordinance imposing a 40 mile an hour speed limit on the highway but has not had the authority to enforce it. He said the state has been asked to reduce the speed but that state officials reply that the number of accidents does not justify a reduction. The mayor said Bay St. Louis and Hancock County want "preventative action, not

STATE STREET IMPROVEMENT - A single bituminous treatment was completed on State Street from Dunbar Avenue to city limits yesterday as was Julia from Dunbar to city limits. Tuesday's completions were a portion of Railroad Avenue, Sycamore, Easy, Caron, Kellar and Watts Streets. Police Probing Light Shooting

Six street lights were shot out from U. S. 90 to about the 600 block of North Beach Boulevard during the weekend, Police Chief Alcine Saucier reported. No arrests have been made at press time.

A plate glass window at Snuckey's Candy Shop, a plastic statue at Joyce's Candy Shop and a traffic signal on U. S. 90 near Snuckey's were also shot out some time during the weekend. Deputy Sheriff Gerald V. Price Jr. said. At Snuckey's the window was valued at approximately $60.

White agreed to order another survey to determine the average speed of 80 per cent of the traffic, the means used to determine the speed limit for the highway.

The state engineer said that while he will do all he can to make up for the failure of the state to act before, "it's going to take a lot of folks doing a lot of work to teach youngsters and adults to be careful when crossing a busy highway".

The budget presented by Superintendent K. G. McCarty proposes expenditures in the new fiscal year of $207,830 from minimum program funds and $58,100 from district funds compared with $185,258 from minimum last year and $68,400.13 from district.

Expenditures from minimum funds in the white schools last year totaled $159,481.09 and $174,652.25 is proposed. From district funds, $64,631.41 was spent and $58,048.25 is proposed. Negro expenditures totaled $7,230.50 from minimum funds and $15,810 is proposed including $8,110 in other costs not shown for 1959-60.

At the request of Trustee S. P. Powell, who was absent, reading of minutes from the Aug. 20 meeting were postponed until he can be present.

On the motion of Lucis Neacaise, seconded by Alton Kellar, Bird Fire and Safety Service was directed to proceed with installation of fire extinguishers as suggested by McCarty with consideration of further equipment for North Central to be made later. The plan calls for five at Gulfview, six at Logtown and three at North Central.

Use of North Central School for the annual meeting of Coast Electric Power Assn., tentatively scheduled Nov. 12, was approved on the request of Manager H. H. Shattuck, who promised to bear all costs involved including electricity. He observed this might lead later to a major county affair with athletic events and the like.

Two bus route extensions in the North Central area were approved but the board withheld setting a pay formula for this increased mileage until a full

Our Priceless Asset

Among other encouraging developments on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, the effort being made to revitalize the sea food industry deserves community cooperation.

The 1960 session of the Mississippi State Legislature abolished the Sea Food Commission and created the Mississippi Marine Conservation Commission. Members of this new commission, serving without pay, include representatives from all phases of the sea food industry. Under the advice of a marine biologist, they have been meeting frequently to put their program into operation.

The commission holds public hearings on all problems for every segment of the industry to eliminate friction and facilitate production. It aids in imposing and collecting fines for violations.

Working harmoniously together, its members seek reciprocal fishing agreements with the Alabama and Louisiana Conservation Commissions. They have already planted more than 20,000 barrels of shells on reefs in Harrison, Jackson and Hancock counties. The first planting made in years.

Governor Ross Barnett is to be congratulated for his initiative in an effort to revitalize a major industry on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, and members of the Marine Conservation Commission who are serving far beyond the call of duty, are deserving of praise for their enterprise in an endeavor to make the Mississippi Sound the shrimp and oyster capital of the Gulf Coast.

A community prospers only by taking full advantage of its natural resources, and water is our greatest local asset. The many streams that flow into the Mississippi Sound provide one of the nation's foremost sea food feeding grounds. Fish thrive in these waters. With encouragement and cooperation, increased wealth can flow with the tides.

With all hands working together, the Mississippi Gulf Coast can continue to be a fisherman's paradise and become a major sea food center. By capitalizing more fully on our natural resources, we can multiply the prosperity of these seven cities by the sea.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN
Beautiful weather and beautiful water—but no fish. That was the story of the long Labor Day weekend. For some reason they just won't cooperate when you want them to but then but if anyone could catch all the fish he wanted anytime he wanted, fishing would no longer be fun. It would become work. Some fairly good fishing was reported but in general fishing was bad and it seems that spell is needed. Should hurricane Donna pass nearby it might be a situation for some reason they always bite after a storm, but has been mediocre.

Split Dove Time

All hands will be on deck tomorrow for the opening of the first split dove season which is Sept. 9—Oct. 3 and Dec. 2—Jan. 1. Shooting hours are from 12 noon until sunset. Bag limit is 12 per day, 24 per season. Open season on rabbits is Oct. 1 through Jan. 1, bag limit 5 per day, 10 in possession. On squirrels it is Oct. 1 through Dec. 21; bag limit 5 per day, 10 in possession. Remember the hunting season is just as dangerous as it is exciting. Be careful of the careless hunter, he is the one who becomes unaware of his surroundings and before thinking shoots himself at a sound. Also the reckless type who keeps a messy camp, throws cigarette butts into dry leaves and leaves the fire burning. Keep away from the Good Time Charlie type who carries his own spirits and although looking in good shape might mistake you for a deer.

About Labor Day Up the 'Crick'

The Robert H. Colemans were kind enough to invite us to a Labor Day on the shores of Hickory Creek near the Texas Flax Road and during the day we managed to slip off to a little fishing hole up the crick where we caught two mammoth bass with an old cane pole borrowed from Jesse Marquez. Daughters Mary Catherine and Bobbie had already dug a pit when we arrived and the barbecued ribs, etc., were out of this world—after we washed some of the Texas Flax dust out of our mouths. Father Cunningham and I took our turn watching the kiddies, while they were swimming and got a few more gray hairs counting noses every few minutes. We finally herded them back to camp only to discover we had 12 so had to go back and find the owner of the extra one. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Coleman; daughter Mrs. Mary Catherine Dunham and children Linda and Bobby; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Manieri and son Donald; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whidder of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Manieri Jr.; Lloyd and Vi Cunningham and daughter Barbe and the Piazzas' eight kiddies of which Bernice could only remember the names of seven yesterday. Shame, Bernice, they are Laura Ann, Bernice Jr., Mary Helen, Gina, George, Allen, Lisa and Karen. Better clip this and put it in your wallet.

Par for the Course

A bulletin from the golfing department says that Dick Tarleton, who is a Pass Christian Isles Golf Club, turned in a 68 using 20 puts in the 18 holes the other day. Ray Kidd went 60 miles down to the marshes last week including cruises up and down the coast line looking for fish but only came home with ten. This isn't for publication, he said. Ray says the bad luck has even reached Judge Rene Viosca who has been meeting his quota of reds lately but has been doing pretty good up the river with specks. According to a column in a New Orleans paper the Pfeiffers and intercedents who were fifers or pipers and when surnames come in they made their occupational title their name of identification. Wonder if Jim was out fifeing somewhere Monday when he was AWOL?

All the weird sounds heard around the Bay lately are probably the local football coaches mourning about their sorry teams who will be forced to do battle come tomorrow night with teams made up of future All-Americans. Don't let them fool you, this could be one of the best years in recent times for all the county's schools.

Hendrix, Tarleton Take Golf Prizes

Mrs. D. Hendrix and Mrs. John David tied with low nets of 74 in the 18-hole class during the ladies day tournament Tuesday at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club. In the nine-hole division, Mrs. Dick Tarleton and Mrs. Cary Spence tied with nets of 41.

Not Said Safe At Pearlington

Coast Guard search for a 40-foot vessel, the Alice Dorothy, ended over the weekend when the craft was reported safe in Pearlington by one of its two occupants. The vessel was reported by friends of its occupants to be missing in the Lake Borgne area. However, Dr. Calvin M. Johnson of New Orleans, one of the two occupants, telephoned that the vessel was safe at Pearlington. Dr. Johnson said that apparently some friend of the pair had not been informed the vessel was safe and had notified the Coast guard it was missing.

Coast Electric Picnics

Coast Electric Power Assn. employees, their families, directors and guests held their annual family picnic Labor Day at the Star House Farm. More than 165 persons attended.

Supplementing the association's safety program, the family picnic is becoming a tradition with Coast Electric, this marking the fourth such annual affair.

H. R. Shattuck, manager, briefly sketched the history of the REA program, nationally, statewide and locally.

He noted that more than 25,000 persons lived and/or worked with electric service provided by Coast Electric, which now has a payroll in excess of $250,000 per year. The value of the facilities exceeds $4 million and the members have an equity in excess of $1 million.

Shattuck reviewed the territorial disputes now facing two rural electric systems in Mississippi, observing that as municipalities expand, efforts to take over service areas would probably result in prolonged litigation that would go to the Supreme Court.

A continued safety program was emphasized and called a must by Shattuck.

Out of town guests included Chick Stovall, safety and job training supervisor from Mississippi State University, who
